18 A sequence of topological moves. It starts with a triangle pointing up, followed by a circle with a central dot, then a strand crossing over itself. An arrow points to a triangle pointing right, which is then crossed by a horizontal strand. This is followed by a circle with a dot and a strand passing through it, then a small circle, then another circle with a dot and a strand passing through it, then a triangle pointing left, then a vertical strand with a cross, then a triangle pointing down, and finally a small circle.

A diagrammatic equation consisting of two parts separated by an equals sign. The left part shows a vertical line with a crossbar, followed by a circle, then a large X, then a tree-like symbol, then an upward arrow over a vertical line with a crossbar, then a rectangle containing a triangle with a dot, then another vertical line with a crossbar, and finally another circle. The right part shows an equals sign followed by a flame symbol with an upward arrow, then two triangles, then a crossed-out person symbol with an upward arrow, then a hand holding a flame over a wheel-like symbol with an upward arrow, and finally two more triangles.

A diagram consisting of a tree structure on the left and a separate circle on the right. The tree has a root node at the top, which branches into two child nodes. Each of these child nodes further branches into two leaf nodes, resulting in a total of four leaf nodes and two internal nodes. To the right of this tree structure is a single, isolated circle.

Figure 10: A sequence of 15 diagrams illustrating the proof of Lemma 1. The diagrams show the transformation of a complex knot-like structure through various moves, including crossings, resolutions, and isotopies, ultimately leading to a simplified form.
