

VIDEO Lesson 12

Teacher: What do you see here?

Student: I see a thing in a hand. So, it must be holding.

Teacher: Very good. Or taking, carrying or bringing. So, take, carry or bring.

0:00:25

Teacher: What do you see?

Student: A thing in a mouth.

Teacher: Not a thing.

Student: A point?

Teacher: Clothes or fabric. Clothes or a fabric in the mouth is...the tongue. We normally had it extending out like a tongue would be, but again it was confusing once the 3D printer printed. They didn't really understand the triangle was continuing past the mouth. So, we were polite and kept the "tongue" inside the mouth. Tongue.

0:01:24

Teacher: What do you see?

Student: Spit.

Teacher: Very good. This is the word spit; water coming out of the mouth.

0:01:38

Teacher: So, there's a mouth and air. When you have air, but it doesn't leave your mouth its just inside your mouth its "sigh".

0:02:04

Student: Ok not bound. So, free?

Teacher. Very good. Free. Very happy free person.

0:02:17

Student: Spit. Sigh. Take, carry. Tongue. Free.

0:02:41

Teacher: What do you see?

Student: A heart in a heart.

Teacher: A heart inside love. When your heart loves something, you desire it. So, this is desire. We also use this for the word will or want.

0:03:05

Teacher: What do you see that you know?

Student: Desire? Mouth? Can't remember the word for it but emphasis?

Teacher: When you "very" talk, or emphatically talk about something you desire, you are begging. So, this is the word "beg".

0:03:43

Student: That must be Christ.

Teacher: So, this is a little bit different, you see a little arrow. You also see that the word is a different color. So, the blue words and the words with arrows indicate a proper noun. Proper nouns are usually the name of a person or a place. That's the only proper noun you'll see in SUN. So, this, what do you see here?

0:04:18

Student: I see the Cross and I see the King.

Teacher: King on the Cross is: Jesus. Not Christ, Christ is a different word.

0:04:39

Student: That's love inside of a man. So that must be Father.

Teacher: Father. Very good. Picture the child hugging the Father and kissing him on the cheek.

0:04:52

Student: And that is the King and He is the Father. So that's God.

Teacher: God. Very Good.

0:05:08

Student: God is in heaven?

Teacher: Okay, very good. So, this is heaven, God's house.

0:05:27

Student: Desire. Beg. Father. Jesus. God. Heaven.

Teacher: Good.

0:05:43

Student: God. Tongue. Free. Heaven. Spit. Sigh. Desire. Beg. Carry, take. Father. Jesus.

Teacher: Okay!

0:11:13

Teacher: As with before, take a look at the words in front of you and make 3 sentences with 3-4 words each.

Student: [arranges cards into order] God in heaven desires crowds to be free.

0:13:07

Student: [arranges cards into order] God begs to take our tongues and set them free.

0:13:47

Student: [arranges cards into order] God changes our desires and changes them into His.

Teacher: Very good.
